DAVIE GETS

$3000

Commissioner Edwards
Criticises Council's Purchase

Executive Explains He
May Give T. R.
a Lift

HOW THEY VOTED.
For Mayor's Auto—Baccus,
Anderson, Jackson and Davie.
Against Auto—Edwards.

Spirited criticism of Mayor Davie in connection with his demand for a $3000 automobile was voiced by Commissioners Edwards and Jackson when the ordinance appropriating this sum was presented for final passage today. Commissioners Anderson and Baccus, the hold-over commissioners from the former council, said nothing but voted in favor of the appropriation. Commissioner Jackson declared that he did not think that so much should be spent for an automobile, but finally voted in favor of it and the ordinance was passed by four votes. Commissioner Edwards voting no.

"I want to explain my vote," said Commissioner Jackson when the roll was called. "I have heard a great deal of criticism about the Mayor who had advocated economy, asking for a $3000 automobile. I was told that it was dangerous for me to support this proposition. Now I don't care a snap about any danger that may result from my action. I am going to decide matters on their merits."

"The Mayor holds a most important position and this is one of the important cities on the Pacific Coast. I think the Mayor of Oakland should have an automobile at his service. If he is visited by prominent persons from other states or cities, the Mayor of Oakland should not have to put in the position of having to borrow an automobile from some millionaire."

NO MORE SEA HORRORS.

The ambassador is personally convinced there will be no repetition of the Lusitania disaster and that German submarines now are exercising great precaution to avoid incidents which might inflame public opinion in the United States. With this in mind, he added that the United States take advantage of the information in Berlin's reply that Germany would be willing to have the entire question of freedom of the seas mediated with Great Britain through the American government. Such a course, American officials have indicated, might be more welcome if accompanied by some assurance that during the pendency of the negotiations American lives and vessels would be safe from attack and danger.

"Besides I think that if we were purchasing a new automobile for the mayor, $3000 would be enough to pay for." "This ordinance doesn't fix the price to be paid," interposed Commissioner Anderson. "It merely states that we will appropriate $3000 for the purchase of an automobile, and that so much of the appropriation as may be necessary will be used for that purpose."

"Yes, but I know it will cost $3000," interposed Edwards. "Well, it won't be a 'tin lizzie,' anyway, such as Commissioner Edwards rides in," said Mayor Davie. "I am not in his class and don't like to ride in a 'tin lizzie.'"

"It's good enough for me," interjected Edwards, "and it's paid for too."

"Well, when my friends come out here to visit me or when Teddy Roosevelt or any one of the big ones are here, I intend to have an automobile that I can take them around the city in," explained Mayor Davie. "I intend to occupy this automobile myself. The fact is I have been refused half a dozen times in the past week when I needed one of these city automobiles because it was not there and somebody else was using it. And I am not going to be $1500 to a policeman to have a car around. I am going to have my own chauffeur whom I can rely upon."

"The automobile is going to be at the service of the commissioners to take them about the city. It is going to be seen in every part of the city every day in the week."

"And I am going to choose my own chauffeur and have a chauffeur that I can rely upon not to

BERNSTORFF PROPOSES

Diplomacy, He Thinks,

Mediation for Freedom

Asked

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, told Secretary of State Lansing today that he believed the German reply to the last American note on submarine warfare presented opportunity of settlement of the controversy by further diplomatic negotiations.

He conferred with Mr. Lansing for an hour and talked later with Assistant Secretary Phillips. In the absence of President Wilson, Secretary Lansing was unable to inform the ambassador what course the United States would pursue in its next note, but he heard with much interest Count von Bernstorff's explanation of the purposes of the German government to satisfy public opinion at home on the maintenance of submarine warfare, and at the same time to maintain friendly relations with the United States.

"The Mayor holds a most important position and this is one of the important cities on the Pacific Coast. I think the Mayor of Oakland should have an automobile at his service. If he is visited by prominent persons from other states or cities, the Mayor of Oakland should not have to put in the position of having to borrow an automobile from some millionaire."

The ambassador is personally convinced there will be no repetition of the Lusitania disaster and that German submarines now are exercising great precaution to avoid incidents which might inflame public opinion in the United States. Such a course, American officials have indicated, might be more welcome if accompanied by some assurance that during the pendency of the negotiations American lives and vessels would be safe from attack and danger.

Count von Bernstorff refused to reveal what had taken place at today's conference, beyond stating it was a very satisfactory interview and that he felt encouraged to believe the danger of a rupture in relations had been reduced. He was also optimistic in view of the German government did not want a break and would do all in its power to prevent one. He is confident that the United States holds a similar view. The ambassador is strongly of the opinion that diplomacy will be able to settle the issue.

REPORTS TO BERLIN.

The ambassador's interview was entirely informal. He came without special instructions from his government. That, however, is not unusual, as he would be expected by his foreign office in such a situation to exert every influence toward bringing about an understanding. He sent a long report on his visit by wireless to the Berlin foreign office. Secre-

President Returns
Early Next Week

By Associated Press.

CORNISH, N. H., July 16.—Arrangements were completed today for President Wilson's return to Washington early next week. Members of his family will remain here and the President hopes to join them again later if public business permits. Before his return trip here, however, he probably will visit his daughter, Miss G. McAdoo, at her summer home in Maine.

After an early round of golf the President retired to his study at Marlborough House prepared to spend several hours working on official business from Washington.

He expected to communicate later with Secretary Lansing regarding the German situation.

Boys Complete Walking Tour Between Two Fairs

Completing a walking tour from the gates of the Panama-Pacific Exposition to the gates of the San Diego Exposition in the record time of 14 days, Dudley Heron, son of E. H. Heron, the former president of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, and his student friend, Thomas Judkins, son of the prominent attorney, are now in the soring resting after their unique athletic feat. Young Heron bore with him letters of credentials from President C. C. Moore of the Panama-Pacific Exposition to the president of the San Diego Fair, which were presented on the arrival of the boys at the two fairs.

The petition contains 2328 signatures which will be canvassed by the county clerk. The proponents of the referendum had hoped to obtain 60% of the 400,000 signatures necessary from this county, but it is expected that the discrepancy will be made up elsewhere.

Colonel Benson, as harbor master for the port of Eureka and Thomas McCormack of Rio Vista as a member of the Solano county board of supervisors representing the fifth district in place of R. Hoyt, resigned on account of ill health.

Major Who Never Had Chance, Is Hanged

By Associated Press.

JOLIET, Ill., July 16.—Frank Repetto, "the man who never had a chance," was hanged here today for the murder of Charles Masters, his cell mate at the penitentiary, a year ago.

Repetto was sentenced to prison for life at Joliet in 1912 for the killing of his cell mate.

He was serving a sentence of 20 years for the murder of his cell mate, Charles Masters, in 1912.

The boy stopped two days to rest during their walk of 600 miles, one day at Santa Barbara and one day at Los Angeles, where they visited Harmon Bell, the well-known attorney, and a friend of E. A. Heron.

The boys experienced no difficulty in their long walk, staying close to the coast throughout. They were at no times worried, and being seasoned athletes, met with no inconveniences.

The roads, they report, are in excellent condition and the weather was pleasant. The trip is unique in recent exposition walking tours.

LLOYD GEORGE TO QUELL STRIKERS?

Munitions' Tribunal Rules Per-turbed Districts; Minister May Join Conference.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, July 15.—South Wales Miners are showing today an unbroken front in conformity with a resolution adopted at a meeting of delegates in Cardiff yesterday, when it was decided to reject the recommendation of the executive committee that the men return to work. Even the men in one district, who last night decided to resume work, reversed their decision, and now a picketing continues.

An improvement in the situation, however, is expected as a result of mass meetings in the various districts today, and the conference of Walter Runciman, the president of the Board of Trade, with representatives of the miners and the coal owners.

The miners' leaders, who throughout have opposed the strike, are inclined to the view that a resumption of work may be expected Monday and the government's attempt in setting up a general munitions tribunal to wade and subdue the miners is thought likely to help bring about a settlement.

Should the Runciman conference today not turn out favorably David Lloyd-George, Minister of Munitions, possibly will visit the perturbed district. His influence with the men in previous disputes has been very effective. In the meantime perfect peace reigns in the coal fields.

Ambassador Page in Conference With Grey

By Associated Press.
LONDON, July 1, 6:15 p. m.—The American ambassador, Walter Hines Page, visited the Foreign Office this afternoon, presumably for the purpose of acquainting the British government with the summary of the draft of the new American contract note.

Recent despatches from Washington have indicated that another American protest against Great Britain's treatment of commerce was about to be made. The new note is understood to insist emphatically on the cessation of what the Washington government considered to be an infringement of American rights. The question at issue was to be whether any country was bound in international law for the powers that Great Britain and her allies had assumed to exercise in respect to American commerce.

Reputed American Is Executed for Treason

By Associated Press.
LONDON, July 16.—Franz Berka, a laborer, who claimed American citizenship, was shot for high treason at Mährisch-Ostrau, in Austrian Silesia, June 14, according to the Daily Chronicle, which says it gets its information from a copy of the official journal of the province of Silesia.

Berka, who was 46 years old, says the Daily Chronicle, was tried before the military court charged with using two traitorous expressions in an inn at Gross-Helendorf. The expressions were alleged to be calculated to disturb the peace of the neighborhood.

The court sentenced the man to be hanged, but the sentence was changed to shooting and was carried out two hours after its pronouncement.

BATTLES WAGED IN FRANCE AND TURKEY

Caucasus Front of Russia Again Sees Desperate Fighting.

has prevented the troops crossing in several areas.

Fighting again is becoming lively in the most distant portion of the Russian front—in the Caucasus—where both the Turks and the Russians won successes.

French CLAIM SUCCESS.

The battle in the Argonne, which had proceeded for several days with violent irregularly, culminated today in the capture by the French of Hill No. 280 which the troops of Crown Prince Frederick William had captured by storm on July 13, and the first report of the German attack on this region was lost.

In our front which joins the Argonne to the east, lively artillery battles are in progress. Attacks made by the Germans in this region seem to be lost.

In the night battle of the Meuse, which took place but did not reach high attacks because of heavy losses suffered on both banks of the river the situation unchanged.

On the right bank of the Vire there was no fighting of any significance.

"On the left bank of the Vire there was no fighting of any significance."

Between the Vire and the Orne on the 14th the enemy made numerous separate attacks, all of which were repelled by our fire.

On the northeastern theater, the situation with the German troops is unchanged.

FRENCH

By Associated Press.

PARIS, July 16, 7:35 a. m.—The following official statement was issued by the War Office today:

"In the region to the north of Arras the enemy attempted to rally from his defeat in the south. Chateau-Thierry, in the Carleau, and immediately was checked by our infantry and artillery fire. In the Argonne our curtains of fire prevented every tentative attack of the enemy."

"Between the Meuse and the Moselle the night witnessed activity but without action on the part of the infantry. There was a bombardment at the ravine of Souvigny, bomb throwing in the forest of Souvigny, and camouflaging to the north of Flirey."

"Lorraine the Germans attacked on a front extending three kilometers, the town of Bapaume, and the village of Lantrey. There at the same time bombarded our line from the forest of Champenoux as far as the Vesoue river, delivering some attacks partly with infantry."

"The Germans also attacked the village of Fauvillers, northeast of Verdun, and reached our wire entanglements they were dispersed by our fire and left prisoners in our hands. The losses of the enemy are not known."

"There has been no change on the remainder of the front."

Former Premier of Greece Threatened

By Associated Press.

PARIS, July 16.—A dispatch to the Havas News Agency from Athens says that a private letter received from Constantinople states that the Young Turks committee is plotting the assassination of former Premier Venizelos of Greece. The police, the Athens advises state, have taken the necessary measures to protect the life of the former prime minister.

Cholera Is Gaining Ground in Hungary

By Associated Press.

PARIS, July 16, 7:35 a. m.—A Havas dispatch from Genoa says information has been received there from Budapest to the effect that 544 cases of cholera developed in Hungary during the week from June 21 to 28, with 281 deaths. Twenty-four cases out of a total of 81 in the army are said to have resulted fatally.

GREAT LOSS IS FEARED.

By Associated Press.

COLUMBUS, O., July 16.—Swollen by torrential rains that have fallen throughout the last ten days many points in Central Ohio were inundated, and the water level continued to approach the magnitude of the great flood of March 1913, when more than 500 persons were drowned and property damage aggregating many millions dollars resulted.

DANGER TO KANSAS CITY.

By Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, July 16.—Kansas City faced a serious flood situation today, according to announcement by the weather bureau.

At noon the Missouri river here had reached 27 feet, the high water mark of last month. The river was fast ascending and should there be continued rains the weather bureau announced that the river here probably would go to 30 feet.

Should the 22-foot stage be reached the big packing house and wholesale district in the bottoms probably would be inundated.

Railroad service both east and west is badly crippled.

More heavy rains in the Kansas watershed early today sent two of the tributaries, the Blue and the Republican, out of their banks.

At 1 o'clock the Missouri river was at the 21.1 stage, the highest this year.

SCIOTO RIVER RISES.

By Associated Press.

KENTON, O., July 16.—The Scioto river passed the 1913 flood stage here at noon. The Kenton waterworks is now submerged and the city is without fire protection. The rainfall in the last twenty-four hours has been the heaviest in the history of the city. Refugees are arriving from nearby villages. Farmers will suffer heavy loss.

"TRUTH GIRL" GIVEN DIVORCE FROM DANCER

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16—Marjorie Hobby, an actress, better known as Marjorie Corville, "The Truth Girl," this morning was granted a divorce decree from her husband, Robert Corville, a dancer employed at the Exposition. No support was alleged.

On the ground that her husband stated to friends that he was undecided whether to live with her and get $3000 a month, or divorce her and get another woman with $1000. Dallas Lee Bell today obtained a divorce from George Byron, alias George Dawson. Her husband, she told Judge Trout, declared to her that he was a member of a gang of blackmailers. Affidavits from F. T. Deck, a Los Angeles newspaper man, bore out her complaints.

lengthy dimensions, which are not possible," said Stater. "The ordinance is a substitute for one now ready for final passage, but which has been held up, the intent of which would have been to create the position of Chief Municipal Engineer at a salary of $7,500 a month. The ordinance which is being substituted provides that the mayor may contract for any services for a period not to exceed one year at a compensation of $300 a month. This removes the position from the control of civil service.

"I notice that under this ordinance it is only the harbor department which Miller is to investigate," said Commissioner Edwards. "That was not our original plan. We were not going to confine it merely to the harbor department, but to the street and engineering departments
as well."

"He will have plenty of work for year in the harbor department," objected Commissioner of Streets W. J. Baccus.

"I don't see why this matter shouldn't go through today," said Commissioner Jackson. "We threshed it all out before.
I think there is enough work for Miller in the harbor department to take up all his time. The people of West Oakland have come to us asking that we fill in the western front and we can send him down there right away."

"Well, that is not the only matter he ought to be in charge of," said Edwards.

Commissioner Edwards continued to object and pointed out that as the ordinance does not take effect until August it is the wrong time in which to consider the matter.

Baccus returned that they might as well give the ordinance its first and second reading today as they could enter into a new contract at any time if they should want to do so.

"It doesn't cover all the departments we talked about," Edwards insisted, "and I want to get clear on that point."

"The remainder of the engineering department which is assigned to my care is mine," said Baccus. "It's so small that it would take him only a few days to go through it. I wonder if you realize that I have 15 positions in the engineering department which I have filled and that I have 10 positions in the street department that I haven't filled. I could fill those positions any day without coming to this council."

"That is just the sort of thing we want to know about," said Edwards.
"We can give it its first reading today," said Jackson, "and amend it Monday if we so desire."

An agreement was reached on these lines and the ordinance was given its first reading and will come up again Monday for second reading and passage to

KALAS'S DOOM APPROACHES.

The ordinance abolishing the position of purchasing agent A. T. Kalas was passed to-day by unanimous vote of the council. Commissioner Edwards announced that it was the purpose of the new administration to abolish the position of purchasing agent, the position of Price Expert L. G. Jordan, and to consolidate the functions of these two offices in a commissary department with one man and one salary.

An ordinance has already been prepared creating the proposed commissary department and will be introduced at an earlier date.

An ordinance repealing ordinance 402
N. S., which assigns certain offices to their proper department, was presented for final passage, but objections were raised by Commissioner Jackson.

"I sent my secretary to get a copy of this ordinance from the city clerk," said Jackson. "I wanted to read it. I was told they didn't have a copy and that it wasn't coming up. Why was that?"

The city clerk explained some mistake had been made and action was deferred until Monday to give the commissioners an opportunity to find out what the difference was about.

M'MULLEN AND HILL NAMED.

Communications were received from the civil service board in regard to the emergency appointment of C. Stuart Mac-Mullen as revenue expert and of Dr. J. A.
Hill as city veterinarian and assistant to the health officer.

Resolutions were passed by unanimous vote making these appointments.

The commissioners, sitting as a board of equalization, amended their rule which provides that a property owner whose assessment is to be increased shall have first day notice of the time of hearing, to make this only three days notice. This was done to expedite the work of the Board of Equalization.

Announcement was made that notice has been served upon Mrs. Ernestine Adams as executrix of the estate of the late John Charles Adams and upon her attorneys that the assessor had made an arbitrary appraisal of the personal property of the estate and that a hearing will be given this matter in ten days.

PROVE BOY SON OF RICH MORMON

INFANT HURLED FROM PULLMAN

Child by Plural Marriage After Anti-Polygamous Manifesto.

OAKLAND July 15.—Albert Geddes, aged 79, won his legal fight today to establish that his son, born before he was married, is the son of his wife, Madge, deceased. Evidence on the ground is he is the son of Geddes by a plural marriage. A jury which had deliberated on the evidence for eighteen hours returned a verdict that Geddes did not admit the paternity of the youth voluntarily during his life time.

The case has held wide attention because of the so-called Woodruff manifesto issued within the Mormon church in 1880, declaring against plural marriages, and because Mrs. Margaret Geddes, mother of Albert, had figured as a witness in the investigation of Senator Reed Smoot conducted in Washington in 1904.

The testimony showed that Mrs. Geddes and Geddes were married in August, 1884, by a Mormon apostle.

The jury was composed of eight men, six of whom were Mormons. A poll of the jury taken after the decision showed seven jurors in favor of Albert Geddes' contention.

The young man's suit was for one-thirty-third of the big estate.

CHINA TO HAVE LINE OF VESSELS

Pacific Mail Boats May Be Taken Over by Oriental Capitalists.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—A business of a few thousand dollars, one of steamer owners and managers of the Chinese capital will be started in the near future. It is said when some or all of the boats of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company are taken over by these capitalists.

Feng Sui, of Canton, after a brief visit to this city, the purpose of which was kept a secret until yesterday, left for New York to confer it is said with R. P. Newlin, vice-president and general manager of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, and with Eastern bankers.

Feng Sui, who is in San Francisco, took pains to keep his presence and his mission a secret. He was known to have arrived because of a telegram from Honolulu and it was also known at the time that he was coming to the United States to purchase ships.

While in San Francisco Feng Sui visited the Bank of Canton where he held interests and L. P. Allen, banker and founder of the bank.

"I can say," said Allen, "that China is going to have a trans-Pacific steamship line. I am not acquainted with the details of the proposed, and if I were I could not divulge them."

During his stay Feng Sui visited several Chinese merchants and when he left stated that he was going to New York to attend a meeting of steamship men, at which the matter of the establishment of a Chinese-American steamship line would be taken up.

Another circumstantial fact is that the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce in Washington stated that Feng Sui was on his way to the United States to obtain credit material "to construct a fleet of five vessels for freight and passenger service," while in the Pacific Mail fleet there are exactly five steamers.

Two Times Wed, She Has Her Maiden Name Again

Alice Westphal Is Freed Once More by Court

Mrs. Alice Westphal, Oakland singer and heroine of two elopements, has had her maiden name back again for the second time today. A decree was issued in Judge Stortell's court in San Francisco annulling her marriage to Thomas M. Blake Jr., attorney for the press. Miss Westphal, 21, lost her first official engagement now to Alvin Westphal, Frank-Westphal-Blake-Westphal. Twice she has journeyed over a rocky path of love to marital disaster.

The Oakland girl daughter of the famous mining family and prominent in the younger set as a talented amateur boxer, was sold a ticket to the bridegroom's parents' home when she married 18-year-old Louis Frank-Westphal after a sensational elopement. The marriage did not turn out happily. There were quarrels, and the bride was taken to her parents' home with the youth's bridegroom sought legal aid to have the marriage restored.

Then came a third marriage, this time to a local boy, which he interrupted when he found his mate there with another. He was forcibly ejected. Finally the marriage was annulled, the members of the couple that neither was of age.

The second elopement occurred when in 1912 she married Thomas J. Blake Jr., then 20 years old. Annulment proceedings were brought by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Christine Blake, of 1530 Washington street.

RICH ON COUNTERFEIT; REFUSE RENT: CAUGHT

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, July 16.—What were purported to be false Minnesota state bonds and counterfeit currency to the amount of a quarter of a million dollars, were found today by policemen who entered a West Side rooming house to quell a disturbance between boarders and the landlady. Though the boarders had a trunk so full of spurious money that two detectives could hardly lift it, they had refused to pay their rent, and the argument became so noisy that passing officers entered the house.

The four boarders were arrested in the neighborhood.

MEN OF GUERNSEY ARE ALL AT WAR

Few Remain on Island Where Victor Hugo Lingered and Wrote.

From the little Island of Guernsey in the English channel where out of 45,000 men there are only 100 eligible for war duty left at home, Captain John Leale, veteran retired bay skipper, returned to San Francisco last night after a year's absence.

When the ferry building was reached, an illuminated sun greeted him. It reads:

"Welcome to Captain Leale."

Under the sign stood a group of old waterfront cronies. His joy was complete.

Captain Leale was accompanied by his wife and two daughters, Marion and Edith. They went to the home of Allen Pollak, 727 Vallejo street, temporarily. There, around the pleasant fire-side they told stories of their experiences.

The sentiment that sent the young men of Guernsey to the war was amazingly strong, said Captain Leale. "They realize, of course, that the country is in a very serious conflict. They know the most wins, though they think it will take a long time. They feel that they must not stop short of victory, or they will not accomplish what they have set out to accomplish, the wiping out of Prussian militarism."

The English are catching a good many submarines in the nets. You do not hear of that over here. You only hear of the ships that are lost. I think the dragging nets are proving very successful.

The first thing that struck us here was the lights of New York. London is dark these nights. There everything is black."

Captain Leale retired from the ferry service June 1, 1914, after 73 years service, in which he traveled 1,000,000 miles on the waters of the bay.

EVANGELIST APPEARS
BEFORE S. F. AUDIENCE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—Preaching to a large audience at the Evangelistic Tabernacle, Van Ness avenue and Bush street, last night, Dr. John McNeill declared that in man's relation to God there was no neutrality.

"You are either for Him or against Him. Play at any game you want, but stop playing Christian," said the evangelist. "Don't wear the livery of a Christian on Sunday and refuse to be with God in the battle during the week."

"Away with religious formality and be an earnest Christian, a right living and right thinking man or woman."

Dr. McNeill preached from an incident in the life of David and applied it in a forceful way.

Bishop Edwin H. Hughes, chairman of the general committee in charge of the Tabernacle work said that the expenses over and above the collections were $30 a day and that he was pleased to announce that several San Francisco men had enclosed him checks for that amount requesting that they be privileged to pay the deficit for one day.

Dr. McNeill announced that tonight he would preach from the life of David.

LIBERTY BELL WELCOMED BY STATE

Historic Emblem, Proceeding South, Is Due at Bay Tonight.

The Liberty Bell is in California. Before the day is over—two and a half hours before midnight—it will be at its destination. While plans are being made for a grand reception of the historic relic at the exposition, citizens of Newark, where it will touch in Alameda County on its trip over the Sacramento cutoff to San Francisco, are planning a demonstration. At all points along the route the famous bell has been cheered by thousands, linked with flowers by patriotic citizens in the different towns, and honored with wild outbursts of patriotic enthusiasm.

Tonight its triumphal journey is finished. Tomorrow with appropriate exercises it will be installed in place in the Pennsylvania building, where it will remain until the end of the fair.

BELL ENTERS STATE.

The train bearing the bell arrived at Red Bluff this morning at 10:25 o'clock and was declared to be due in Sacramento at 3:30 o'clock. An hour's stay in Sacramento was announced by the party of Philadelphia according to the report. At 3:30 o'clock tonight its special train will pull into the Third and Townsend street station.

Northern California today paid homage to the bell. At Chico, Red Bluff and Marysville public exercises were held and Sacramento began preparations early this morning for its celebration.

The advance committee from the exposition met the Liberty Bell party this morning at Red Bluff. Among those who accompanied Postmaster Charles Fay of San Francisco, head of the local committee, were Governor Hiram Johnson, Senator James Phelan, Judge F. M. Angelotti, Judge W. W. Morrow, Judge W. V. Van Fleet, Mayor James Rolph, Jr., William T. Sesson, J. J. Dwyer, Thomas F. Boyle, John F. Davis, Marshall Hale, W. N. Moore, Milton Oberberg, Raphael Weil, Eustace Culkin, Byron Maury, Col. A. C. Hethington, Charles R. Hall.

OREGON'S TRIUMPHAL.

The Liberty Bell special entered Oregon early yesterday morning, and from that time until it reached Roseburg at dusk the route was a triumphal procession.

At Astoria, Wash., although the road was hauled up more than 3000 feet, 2000 men gathered at the depot to catch a sight of the bell.

The special arrived at Portland last 7 o'clock yesterday morning, was greeted with patriotic exercises in which almost the entire population participated.

The official escort was met at the station by a reception committee appointed by Mayor Albee and escorted the Portland hotel, where breakfast was served. The party then toured the city as guests of the mayor before proceeding to the speakers' stand.

The bell car was attached to a motor of the Northern Pacific and driven through the city to Fourth Street to a position in front of the courthouse.

Here a platform had been erected at a level with the bell, over which the people passed.

GREAT EVENTS AT FAIR.

Tomorrow sees the big celebration of the fair in honor of the bell's arrival. The official program for the day is as follows:

ARMY CAR PARADE.

A new feature to military parades will be the entrance of the eight armored motor cars which have just completed a 2000-mile test trip from the Middle West.

The Liberty Bell will be near the end of the parade. It will be followed by the cavalry, which takes this position as a signal gun.

Among the numerous bands which will participate in the parade will be the Shriner Band of 75 pieces from the Lulu Temple of Philadelphia. The organization, with the Arab jatrol and drill corps of 200 will reach San Francisco on a special train from Seattle at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The line of march for the Liberty Bell parade will be as follows:

AGED RESIDENT OF NILES CALLED

Venerable Mrs. Lucy Shinn Has Final Summons After Long Illness.

Mrs. Lucy Shinn, aged 86, died yesterday morning at her home in Niles, Calif. She was one of the country's most venerable residents, having lived in Niles for several years after her removal to the town from New Haven, Conn., in 1852.

Miss Shinn was a member of a well-known New England family and was a citizen of Farmington, Conn., for many years. Her son, Mr. and Mrs. George Shinn, live in Farmington, and she was with them for many years.

After living several years in Farmington, she moved to Dubuque, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Shinn went to Texas. Here they remained for many years, Mr. Howard and Mrs. Howard were born.

In 1872 the family removed to Niles, where Mrs. Shinn started one of the first town businesses in the state. Here she sold dried fruit, vegetables, and other articles.

Charles Shinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Shinn, was associated with the United States government at Forestville. Two others of the family, Anne Shinn and Lucy Shinn, are still living in Niles.

On the death of George Shinn, at the age of 96 years, his son Joseph and his wife, Mrs. Anna Shinn, came to Niles to care for their mother.

The old woman had been a resident attended by a large number of relatives and friends. The Niles Congregational church officiated, assisted by Rev. F. V. Jones, pastor of the church, and Rev. W. W. Anderson, of the First.

DEMOCRACY FOR MUSIC LOVERS?

Oakland to See Novel Experiment at Big Concert Tonight.

Is tonight to mark the forerunner of a revolution in operatic circles?

This is a question that time alone will tell, though from the eagerness and zeal shown by the toilers of Oakland in asking for admission tickets to the opera to be held at the Auditorium this evening for their especial benefit, the question is partly answered. Plainly speaking, this evening's concert may have a tendency to bring forth a wider democracy among the two planes of music lovers, the masses and the classes.

The business man, the professional man, the man of leisure, do not have to deprive themselves of an operatic feast, but the great brawn and sinew of the world, the toilers, among whom are as devout subjects to the influence of music as among the other classes, are held back from attending opera, held back by that greatest of all mottoes—high price. It is due to the work of the Alameda County Music Teachers' Association, aided by the State Music Teachers' Association, now in session here, that the great step toward removing the barrier has been taken, a step which gives free of all charge music—professional music to those who hitherto have anticipated but seldom realized crevices. The Alameda County Teachers' Association will do everything possible to encourage very popular priced opera in the Municipal Auditorium—the building by the people for the people, a fitting place indeed for the holding of tonight's free performance.

Miss Mabel Riegelman, protégée of Madame Gadski, soprano of national operatic fame, and Fuhrer-Zelinski trio will be heard. Miss Riegelman is an Oakland girl and has prepared a wonderful program of song. The Fuhrer-Zelinski trio will be heard in Chamber music by Russian composers. The evening's program follows:

(a) Mon coq plu, Marriage of Figaro, Mozart; (b) La Colibri (The Humming Bird) Ernst Chausson; (c) Verdebillches Staedchen, Brahms; (d) Als die Alte Mutter, Dvorak; (e) O si les Fleurs du mal, Goeaux, Massenet; (f) Down in the Forest, Landon-Renard. The Trio.

(g) Moderato con moto from Trio, op. 55. Rubenstein, Fuhrer-Zelinski Trio.

Miss Riegelman.

3—Deprise le Jour, "Louise," Charpentier; (b) Niemand hat's geschen, Loewe; (c) The Nightingale, Stevens; (d) Premiere Danse, Massenet; (e) Nur wer die Schausucht kennt, Tschalkowsky; (f) The Open Secret, Woodman.

4—Trio, op. 62, Napravnik.

No admission whatsoever will be charged. The complimentary tickets will gain entrance to the arena up to 8:30 o'clock. After that time the doors are open to others the possession of a ticket giving only first choice of seats.

CARGOES TO SIBERIA TAKE GIANT LEAP

SEATTLE, Wash., July 16.—During the first six months of 1915 Seattle shipped cargoes valued at $1,172,000 to Vladivostok, as compared with shipments worth $30,000 in the corresponding period last year. Contrary to general belief, shipments of high grade liquors were small amounting to only six million dollars. The shipments were mostly of goods formerly obtained from Germany. Shipping men believe the trade between Siberia and the Pacific Coast will be permanent.

TO HONOR HOLMES.

PITTSBURG, July 16.—Coal operators and miners in western Pennsylvania and West Virginia will tomorrow pay tribute to the memory of Dr. Joseph A. Holmes, former director of the United States Bureau of Mines, whose funeral will be held in Washington at that time. Dr. Holmes died Tuesday in Colorado of tuberculosis.

Announcement was also made that the Pittsburgh experiment station of the Bureau of Mines will be closed all day.

"I had just that much, myself, when I was planning out my money, and when I came back from CHERRY'S with a dandy Suit, I still had enough for a mighty nice vacation."

"I tell you, Jim, I'd look at $35 a pretty long time before I'd blow it for a Suit all in one bunch! It's no way at all to do, when CHERRY'S have that splendid INSTALLMENT PAYMENT SYSTEM."

"Go up to CHERRY'S—on 13th St.—tomorrow or some time next week, and pick out a suit from the racks of beaties they'll show you."

"Then go and have a tearing good time on your vacation, and when you come back to town with a good coat of tan and a natty new Suit, you'll be so improved in looks that no one will know you. The installment payments CHERRY'S arrange with their patrons are always easy to take care of."

CHERRY'S have a store at 528 Thirteenth St., along with an exclusive ladies' store at 515 13th St. In San Francisco they have two stores—one at 1009 Market St. and one at 2400 Mission St. All of these stores are open until 10 p. m. Saturday. Advertisement.

PRIZE OPERA TO BE SEEN IN CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—Negotiations are on for the presentation in San Francisco of Horatio W. Parker's prize opera, "Fairland," which was recently given its first production on any stage in Los Angeles under the direction of Alvin Hertz, who is now in this city. The American opera was enthusiastically proclaimed a masterpiece, particularly in its musical and more particularly in its orchestral aspects, by many experts who heard the work in the southern city. Hertz himself is enthusiastic over the score and would enjoy the opportunity of showing to San Francisco music lovers the beauties of a work which developed into a national sensation.

By J. F. HAIGHT

My mother was a splendid bread maker, and she is yet, for that matter, but since my bachelor wanderings have taken me away from home I haven't had a chance to sample her creamy loaves for a couple of years. In the country town where we lived, back in Nebraska, it was a serious reflection on any household that did not bake its own bread. We had a couple of Bake Shops in town at that, but they were Courts of Last Resort. I can well remember the disgust among us kids when, in any emergency, after mother's baking had run out, we would find bakers' bread on the table. The stuff was so light and flimsy it would crumble in your fingers when you attempted to spread it.

But times have changed. You CAN get good bread at a Bakery now, and there's plenty of excellent bread made around Oakland. In fact, I don't know of a city in California that is as well supplied with good bread—not excepting Los Angeles with its wonderful "Jevne" bakery. And it isn't a reflection on a housewife either, when she buys all her bread instead of baking it. On the contrary, it is a sign of poor economy to buy flour and spend gas and her own time in baking a small batch of bread.

In the days when I was a boy in the old home, flour was $3 a barrel. Now it is about $8, and housewives cannot buy it in carload lots as the Golden Sheaf people do, either. And the Golden Sheaf warehouse is piled to the roof with flour bought before the war sent the prices soaring skyward. Nowadays it is really economy to buy your bread instead of baking it.

"Golden Sheaf" is just the kind of bread I used to get at home. It is a close-grained loaf with real substance. It is made of the best high-patent Kansas and Dakota hard wheats with a scientific blend of Oregon and Coast flours. But the baking of it! That's where its chief superiority lies. Every baker uses good flour now, for the better the flour the more money he makes, because good flour absorbs more water—goes farther—makes more bread. It's the skill of the baker, the mixing of the dough, the process of baking that makes one baker's bread better than another's.

"Golden Sheaf" bread is made in a spick-and-span bakery. From the emptying of the flour sacks until the golden loaves are loaded in the delivery wagons—under cover each night—it is protected every moment. The dough is mixed by new machinery, under the keen eye of the Master Baker and in every detail represents the highest skill of modern baking methods.

The Head Baker is not only a baker, but a chemist. A graduate of Glasgow University, he has made a life-long study of bread and scientific baking. His white garbed assistants are capable men. They are specialists on bread. No buns, cakes, pies or other pastry are made at the Golden Sheaf Bakery. The entire thought of this organization is concentrated on the making of perfect bread. Two batches with clock-like regularity come from the ovens each day. The bread is uniform, day after day, month after month. There's no guess-work, no luck. Golden Sheaf is always right—always sweet and light.

You can easily get "Golden Sheaf" bread, for it is sold by 700 wide-a-wake grocers in Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Richmond and the other bay cities. And now we want every family to try a loaf at our expense. Clip the coupon from this ad. and hand it to your grocer. He will give you a fresh loaf of Golden Sheaf bread for it. Any one of the 700 grocers who sell this excellent bread will accept it. Try it on your table tomorrow. Then after you have proved its excellence, ask for it regularly.

Golden Sheaf Bread FREE

This coupon will be accepted by the Golden Sheaf Bakery as full payment for one 5¢ loaf of Golden Sheaf Bread. Readers of the paper may present this coupon to their grocer—or if he does not have it—to any grocer who sells Golden Sheaf bread and receive a loaf free. The grocer, in turn, will be reimbursed by the Golden Sheaf Bakery. Fill out the blanks.

DESTRUCTION OF MERCHANT SHIPS.

One of the most striking new effects of modern war fare as now waged in the European war zones is the volume of merchant shipping destroyed. Under war conditions as we knew them before the submarine was introduced as an implement of warfare, merchant vessels were usually captured and put out of commission during the period of hostilities, but after peace was restored they again took up their work of carrying international commerce. With the submarine operating the ships are sent to the bottom of the seas and blotted off the shipping registers of nations.

The first ten months' operations of the European belligerents has wiped out 213 per cent of the world's merchant tonnage. The number of ships sunk by submarines—plus the small number destroyed in naval engagements as converted cruisers—is 511, with a total gross tonnage of 915,457 tons. Add to these figures the 33 German steamers with an aggregate tonnage of 109,280 tons destroyed when the British and Belgians evacuated Antwerp and we have 584 vessels with a total tonnage of 1,024,737 tons eliminated from the world's shipping. The estimated total world merchant tonnage when war broke out last August was 48,000,000 tons.

Of this volume Great Britain registered 20,431,534 tons. A total of 327 British vessels have been destroyed by submarines, mines and other war operations. The loss in tonnage approximates 609,934 tons, or three per cent. Aside from her Antwerp losses Germany has sustained a reduction of her merchant fleet of 34 vessels with a tonnage of 102,062, this from a total registered damage of 5,082,061 tons at the commencement of hostilities. The operations of the submarine has inflicted substantial and unexpected loss on the merchant shipping of neutrals. Norway has lost 30 vessels, Denmark 17, Sweden 22, Holland 13, Italy (before becoming a belligerent), Greece, Persia and Spain 7, and America 5. These vessels had an aggregate gross tonnage of 136,807 tons. Under ordinary rules of war these vessels might have been challenged, searched and even taken into port as a prize, but they would have been available for peaceful commerce at the close of the war.

The loss of these ships is not of serious consequence so far as the shipping resources of the different countries are concerned, neither is it a big loss compared to the number of vessels operating and completing their voyages safely. Furthermore, the shipyards of Great Britain, Germany, France and Austria in 1913 and the first six months of 1914 launched merchant ships aggregating no fewer than 3,000,000 gross tons. So the supply of merchant ships at the close of the war will be quite adequate as it was at the beginning, granting that the same ratio of destruction continue for another year or two. But it seems senseless to destroy without profit implements of peace so valuable and indispensable in the reconstruction periods that follow war. Surely the rules of war need amendment if war is to be considered an unfortunate incident and not an essential of civilization.

INTERNAL COMMERCIAL COMPETITION.

Indications of what America has lost in its foreign trade and how American producers have been made to fight each other by sharp practice of foreign buyers were suggested by John D. Ryan and other members of the Foreign Trade Council before the Federal Trade Commission in the East during recent hearings. Mr. Ryan explained in a general way how this country, "which is a great storehouse of natural resources, has practically thrown away its substance, robbed its mines, its forests, its soil and sold its natural resources in competition with itself, one forest tract with another, one mine with another, one farm with another, in the severest and bitterest kind of competition in the world."

This is possible because the foreign buyers, under the laws of their nations, have been enabled to combine and manipulate the markets of the world, while the American producers have been forced by the laws of their country into ruinous competition with one another. One item will illustrate this point. America produces 20 per cent of the copper of the world and exports 60 per cent of her production. Foreign manufacturers re-export the copper into this country in manufactured form, making the consumers here pay for the labor and freight and give a large profit to Europe. American sellers fight with each other to get the European trade and the European finds the American buyers estranged when he is ready to sell to them.

Mr. Ryan was making a plea for the privilege of closer and more extensive cooperation of Americans in conducting their foreign trade. By disclosing our destructive weakness and the disability suffered under American laws, he supported his plea with a strong, truthful argument. He might have suggested that the losses he described be entered against that much-advertised billion dollar trade balance.

AMERICAN MATERIALS IN THE WAR

The notion appears to be widespread that the European war is being fought, on the side of the allies, in a large part with American munitions. As a matter of fact, up to the 1st of the current month not a single American shell had reached the firing line. To date named, only one American establishment, the Bethlehem Steel Company, had delivered to a European, for any munitions of any kind. Several other big establishments are now and have been for several weeks actively engaged in the manufacture of munitions, but actual delivery is only just now beginning.

War supplies of other kinds, such as food, horses, harness, saddles, automobiles, blankets, etc., etc., have been going forward for months past. For the most part these things have gone to the allies. But early in the war and even more recently, if we may credit positive reports, very considerable quantities of food, consigned from America to neutral countries, has been passed on to Germany.

The great rush of war orders did not reach this country until June, and it found the big establishments, excepting the Bethlehem Company, unprepared. They have gone to work, however, with great energy and now practically every machine shop in New England is working at long hours and top speed. The automobile companies are turning out squadrons of huge lorries. The demand for motorcycles, too, has run into many thousands. Shipping is being assembled in the leading Atlantic ports and by the end of this month the outward movement of war materials will be on a vast scale.

SIFTING THE HEARTS OF NATIONS.

In the dispatches which tell of apparent indifference on the part of Welsh coal miners to the fortunes of England in the war, there are hints suggestive that the miners are not alone at fault. Whether it be true or not, the men manifestly are convinced that the mine owners are planning, when the war shall be over, what is called a "starvation policy" to bring them to terms less advantageous than those now in force. This is not the first suggestion, since the beginning of this war, of a cloven foot on the part of interests nominally and even noisily patriotic. It was, let it be remembered, the brewing interest whose insistence upon its business rights called a halt upon the movement for enforced restriction of drink, declared by the Chancellor of the Exchequer to be a necessity of the situation.

This war is sifting out the hearts of nations. It is demonstrating the administrative incapacity of Russia in her failure to equip and supply her soldiers in the field. While exhibiting the tremendous military efficiency of Germany, it is likewise showing her lack of capacity to comprehend the minds of other peoples or to estimate in their true character atrocities done in the name and spirit of war. It is betraying the lack of patriotism and the lack of many fibre in the British workmen, and the selfishness of the British exploiter of labor. It is making plain the fact that a people may not waste a large percentage of their vitality and energy in idle sports and sun themselves in luxury without debilitating effects.

When this war shall be over, Europe, if she is to sustain her place and prestige in the world, must inaugurate a universal moral housecleaning. If the future Europe is to carry forward the prestige of recent centuries, with leadership in the interests and in the things of highest sensibility, she must come to an understanding of her deficiencies and find ways to correct them. Otherwise the premiership of the world, long held by Europe, must pass to newer and more vital lands and to peoples less corrupted in character, less abandoned to selfishness, to self-indulgence, to narrowness of vision, and to narrowness of sympathy.

JIM DONOVAN, POLICEMAN.

In giving the guests at Yale Alumni banquet the news from Old Eli President Hadley told the story of Jim Donovan. It was the first time it was ever recounted and at the close it seemed particularly fitting that the President of Yale University should have told it.

Jim Donovan was the campus policeman for nearly forty years. He and two professors of the faculty took the long journey last year. He possessed the Irishman's ready ability to get the other person's viewpoint and the facility and habit for delivering a sermon upon every occasion offered. The university ideals and the administrative goals from the viewpoint of the faculty early became the inspiration of Jim Donovan's work. Yet he was the friend of every student. He broke up many a student fracas, quelled many a riot between students and firemen and other necessary agents of the city government of New Haven, a work in which he was greatly aided by his 300 pounds avoirdupois. And he always closed the proceedings by informing both sides they were absolutely in the wrong. In later years he was known frequently to impart the information that he and President Hadley were running the university. President Hadley paid Policeman Jim Donovan this tribute:

"Of all the men who have been connected with Yale, perhaps no one exercised a healthier, nobler, finer influence on the generation of Yale students than Jim Donovan."

CHILD AND BUTTERFLY.

Down by the shining water well I found a very little dell,
No higher than my head.
The heather and the gorse about
In summer bloom were coming out.
Some yellow and some red.

I called the little pool a sea,
The little hills were big to me;
For I am very small.
I made a boat, I made a town,
I searched the caverns up and down
And named them one and all!

And all about was mine, I said,
The little sparrows overhead,
The little minnows too.
It was the world and I was the King,
For me the bees came to sing,
For me the swallows flew.

I said there were no deeper seas,
Nor any wider plains than these,
Nor other kings than me.
At last I heard my mother call
Me from the house at evenfall,
To call me home to tea.

And I must rise and leave my dell,
And leave my dimpled water well,
And leave my heather blooms,
Alas, and as my home I feared,
How very big my nurse appeared,
How great and cold the rooms.

TRADE TIPS FROM CHILE.

Chile imports about 1,600 tons of wire nails and 2,000 tons of cut nails each year, notwithstanding the fact that there is a very good wire-nail factory located at Valparaiso. The factory imports its supplies of wire.

The deposits in all the banks of Chile on February 28 aggregated $88,590,000 United States gold, as against a total of $80,664,000 on December 31 last. This apparent increase is largely due to the rise in exchange values.

A union is expected between the Social Workmen's Congress and the General Committee of Societies of the Republic. This will effect the organization under one head of 400 labor clubs and unions, with a total inscribed membership of 50,000.

Two thousand six hundred and forty-five farmers have petitioned the government to construct the Canal de Laias for irrigating their land. The canal would be built and interest guaranteed by the government, but the land watered would be the ultimate guarantee.

The Chilean law requires theaters to have fireproof curtains, but time has been given to install them. There may be a demand for such curtains within a reasonable length of time.

The national government is the owner of the oyster banks, both natural and artificial, in the Bay of Quellamehu, near Chiloe Island, and is about to rent them at public auction for a period of nine years. It is stipulated that the minimum bid shall be $250 United States gold, in addition to which there shall be paid $0.25 per sack of 110 pounds removed from the beds. All the oysters removed will pass through the customhouse of Ancud.

POLICE STUDY BELL HISTORY.

Four Guardians of Liberty Bell Must Answer Children's Questions.

Do you know who cast the Liberty Bell? Can you recall when first it was hung in the state house and upon what historic occasion it first was rung?

Do you know when and how it was cracked?

And how many times it has been taken on tours?

Probably you could have answered questions like those when you were school boys and girls, but not now. No wonder, then, that the four policemen selected by Director Porter as guardians for the Liberty Bell on the trip to and from the Panama-Pacific Exposition are burning the midnight oil and cramming on American history and geography.

Director Porter admonished the four policemen—they are James J. Quirk, Joseph W. Peery, William E. Sykes and James Jackson—when he selected them, a few days ago, that they must "brush up" on the history of the Liberty Bell, to be able to answer the millions of questions that will be hurled at them on the pilgrimage.

Needless to say, the quartet of blue-coated, each of whom is a giant physically, has been spending the last week in leafing through pages of American history and storing up all the available Liberty Bell lore.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

LONELINESS.

A sea of mist pearl white,
Hills faint beyond the sea,
Nothing but fading light
And thoughts, long thoughts, of thee.

A sea of drifting mist
A lone who on the sea,
Your absent face unkissed,
And life lived wearily.

Mohammedism Is Breaking Down in Subtle Ways, Says Speaker.

MT. HERMON, July 15.—As indicated in the patches, a settlement was announced yesterday in the Countess de Beaufort's claim against the estate of the late J. P. Morgan. The action was first on the list in the Lord Chief Justice's court. Directly it was called counsel, British navy, he pleaded guilty to a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government of $700,000, extracted from the countess' son, John D. Morgan, by his attorney, George C. Ladd. The countess agreed to withdraw the action from the lists. All that was announced publicly was "case settled in terms made in conference."

It is understood that the settlement favors the countess. Morgan's executors agree to return the vase, pedestal and statue for the sale of which to Morgan's executors demanded $2,000. Further, the executors are to pay the countess $1,000 and defray all her legal costs.

Probably the chief reason for settlement was the desire of both parties to publicize the case as little as possible. This spread over many years of intimate friendship between the countess and the financier. Big bundles of documents, including many letters penned by the countess, were in the possession of the lawyers.

WOMEN BEST LAWYERS

SAYS WOMAN ATTORNEY.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—A Portia who holds women superior to men as lawyers, has been elected president of the town yesterday. She is Miss Gretchen Gallagher, secretary to former Mayor Perley—Mrs. Helen Shepard, Miss Laura V. Graham, Mrs. C. P. Constock.

Wednesday afternoon all the denominations uniting in a large rally in the auditorium, where Miss Lily Sherman of Berkeley, secretary of the W. W. C. A. of the University of California, conducted the "Quilt Show." It will last three hours, with speeches by missionaries and workers of different denominations, among the speakers being Rev. and Mrs. Cyril Ross, Presbyterian missionaries to Korea, who expect to return to Korea the end of July; Miss Christine Sundstrom, Presbyterian missionary at Lodi-dorf, in the Kammer district of West Africa; Mrs. Florence P. Rosenberger of the Friends' denomination. During the rally, Miss Adeline Hill, teacher of education in a seminary in Tacoma, gave a recitation, "A Royal Princess," by Charlotte Roselli.

Wednesday evening Mrs. Rosenberger gave an address on "The Challenge of Life." Mary Augustus of Oakland First Christian church sang a solo, and Rev. J. Fraser of the Hebrew Home, Oakland, led in prayer.

"The impact of civilization is breaking down Mohammedan barriers in subtle ways," said Mrs. Rosenberger. "The faithful Mohammedan must remove his shoes and wash his feet or rub them with sand five times a day before prayer. But he becomes educated and puts on American clothes and shoes. It is then very inconvenient to take off shoes five times a day, and he has no sweeping robes to cover his feet. 'Mollish' (never mind) he says, 'I'll pray without taking my shoes off.' But, doing so, he breaks his Koran."

"When he puts on his American vest, he puts a watch in his pocket. As a Moslem he had a Moslem watch. But railroad trains now go on time. It is very inconvenient to calculate modern time by his Moslem watch. So he buys a modern watch. But, doing so, he has broken his Koran. 'Mollish,' he says again."

"As a Moslem he used to carry his money in a little silk bag in his girdle. But now he buys a purse and discloses it is of pig-skin. He dare not use one of his tooth brush, because it is made of pigs' bristles. He puts his money in the bag and takes interest, and he has broken his Koran again. The 'movie' pictures are everywhere around the earth and he goes to them. It's against the Koran."

MARE ISLAND NOTES

MARE ISLAND, July 16.—Hull department officers are greatly pleased at the showing the mechanics in their division have made in the construction of the power plant to be used by Navy Constructor Furer, U. S. N., in raising the ill-fated diver F-4. The first air tank, started a week ago yesterday, was finished Thursday afternoon, and no results were obtained.

The naval submarine tender Rainbow is to be equipped with a 400-k. w. turbine generator according to information received at the navy yard. The new generator will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000 and will be ready at the yard during the fall for installation.

The cruiser Maryland will arrive at Mare Island at 9:30 in the morning Wednesday, the 21st. The fighting cruiser will stay at the yard until Aug. 1, as the pontoons and buoys that the vessel is to take to Pearl Harbor will not be ready to be placed on board until the last of the month.

Assistant Paymaster G. C. Schaefer, U. S. N., attached to the battleship Oregon, reported for temporary duty at Mare Island Thursday.

The mechanics who have been at work on the Perry, Pay, Jones and Fortune have transferred to the Rainier, Yorktown and Buffalo, Thursday. All three latter named craft are in need of an extensive overhauling.

Cards were issued at Mare Island Friday for ten machinists, ten machinist helpers and two boys for the hull department.

Shriners Taking Leave After Big Convention

OAKLAND, July 16.—As mentioned in our times with in the last three weeks, because of her love for Louis Lenotre, when Judge Lewis sentenced to one year for entanglement last Saturday. Two years ago she filed a suit against the estate of the late J. P. Morgan. The action was first on the list in the Lord Chief Justice's court. Directly it was called counsel, British navy, he pleaded guilty to a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government of $700,000, extracted from the countess' son, John D. Morgan, by his attorney, George C. Ladd. The countess agreed to withdraw the action from the lists. All that was announced publicly was "case settled in terms made in conference."

Although applying for probation, Lenotre refused to give a reason for the embezzlement and his attorneys declared that he was shielding a friend.

GIRL'S PICTURES DRAW
HERE A HUSBAND

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—Clerk of the Court, some of the feminine furnishings made by Earth Eby for a local department store to use in newspaper display advertising, were greatly admired by Paul Herman Mans, son of F. H. Mans of the Albion Lumber Company, and led to a courtship that resulted yesterday in the marriage of the two in Redwood City. Miss Eby's work depicted femininity in modish and bewitching lingerie.

The bride is the daughter of L. Eby of South San Francisco. Young Mans is employed by the number of whom in whose family is interested.

They do not know they contemplated an early marriage, they were not surprised when they learned of it.

WASHINGTON BELIEF TO WED IN WEST

WASHINGTON, July 16.—A romance which began several years ago in a tennis club is to terminate within ten days in San Francisco, when Miss Mary Anne of Washington will have traveled 300 miles and wedded the man of her choice, John Boyce. Formerly in this city, now employed in the Interstate Commerce Commission office in San Francisco, Miss Sowers will leave Washington today, and immediately after her arrival in San Francisco it is planned to have the wedding take place.

SISTER OF BRIDE IS NOW BRIDE HERSELF

ALAMEDA, July 16.—Miss Edith Olden, eldest daughter of Herbert Olden of 57 Walnut street, and William Berger of San Francisco, were married last Monday in Santa Rosa. The couple, who met in Monte Rio last year and went there on vacation again this summer, selected the same hotel, the Hotel Monte Rio, as the bride of the post-rancher, and whose marriage took place on June 25. Mr. and Mrs. Heese are now on their honeymoon in Trinity county, which he died.

Dr. Harrison claimed that the man's death was due principally to other causes.

Miss Pinson told of being advised by Dr. F. W. Hatch of Sacramento on June 10 not to resign.

Miss Marian Finch and Miss Dunleavy, trained nurses, said that Miss Pinson was a competent employee. She had been at state hospital more than two years.

Attendants W. Hewlett and Owen Murray corroborated Dr. Hoisholt in several details.

UNCLE WIGGILY CUTS THE GRASS

(By HOWARD R. GAINS.)

Yet Victim Remains Conscious While Footpads Take His Valuables.

While on his way home shortly before midnight, D. F. Keeting, 325 Sixty-fifth Avenue, was met by two robbers at Fairfax and Sixty-fifth Avenue, who terribly beat and robbed him. A gold watch and fob and a small amount in silver coins was taken from him.

Keeting told the police that the two men approached him at a dark portion of the street and that one of the thugs suddenly struck him over the head while the other punched him in the face and knocked him down. They hastily searched his pockets and ran away.

The police searched the neighborhood but found no trace of the robbers.

"I don't see how anyone could remain conscious after being struck repeated and heavy blows such as Keeting's injuries show he was subjected to," remarked Dr. J. Hamilton Todd, who was called to attend the victim after the holdup.

"I took fifteen stitches in four separate wounds in the back of his head, the nature of the injuries pointing to a particularly vicious attack with some instrument which I think could not have been a sand bag or a club. The former would not have inflicted such cuts while the latter would have made cleaner wounds. Keeting says he did not lose consciousness during the assault which I consider remarkable."

This was the first holdup that had taken place in that district for a long time but the assault against Keeting was one of the most brutal that has come under police notice.

Horrors! Wine Sauce on W. C. T. U. Menu

SAN JOSE, July 15.—Who listed "wine sauce" on the menu of the W. C. T. U. International Exposition? Mrs. Schuyler, manager of the restaurant there, said it was the way they were really using it, to feel the public also that "wine sauce" only appeared on the menu because it was the expression used in a letter received and discussed at the regular meeting of the San Jose W. C. T. U. She stated that a complaint had been received from San Jose in regard to the menu item in question.

She concluded by stating that no officer had been served or would be seen in the evening at the W. C. T. U. cafeteria.

MURKIN NEGRO. BUNKIE, La., July 15.—A mob here last night hanged Thomas, a negro, accused of wounding a policeman early yesterday. The officer, W. C. Townsend, was shot, it was said, when he tried to arrest the negro.

Edward Holland, a veteran in the city service, was killed some time ago to

NEAR-BRIDE IS NEMESIS

SUITOR FACES COURT AND
WOMAN*Seeking Divorce;
Six Months WedMrs. Goldstone Asks for Separation From Third Spouse*

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—After six months with her third husband, Mrs. Grace La More-Gates-Benson-Goldstone will bring suit for divorce against Louis Goldstone, attorney.

The complaint will be filed today by J. E. Pemberton, counsel for Mrs. Goldstone. Mental cruelty and humiliation will be urged.

Mrs. Goldstone, who was once the wife of "Swiftwater Bill" Gates, the Klondike miner, married Goldstone on January 15 last. She was the widow of John A. Benson, land operator. Benson had spent a fortune in endeavoring to escape conviction for land frauds. He died in the arms of his wife after being released from the Alameda county jail, and left her the bulk of his estate.

As Grace La More, Mrs. Goldstone is said to have won favor with "Swiftwater Bill." Gates in the Klondike, married Goldstone two other sisters in the La More family, each of whom divorced him.

Goldstone, the third husband, is an attorney with offices in the Kohl building.

"This suit for divorce will be filed at my earnest request and solicitation," said Goldstone last night. "I have lived with Mrs. Goldstone for two months since our marriage. I represented her in some civil matters in conjunction with her present attorney, but am no longer acting in that capacity. If she does not press this suit I shall probably file a suit of my own initiative, the ground for which I cannot discuss at this time. She will not welcome her freedom any more than I will."

ESTATE APPRAISED;
RELATIVES ARE HEIRS

Inventory and appraisement of the estate of the late Charlotte E. Beans died today in the Superior Court shows a valuation of $194,210 of which $165,012 consists of personal property.

Mrs. Beans died in Berkeley last October. She bequeathed stock in the Bank of San Jose and in the T. E. Beans Company to her son, William Edward Beans, $1000 each to nieces, Louise, Gertrude, and Anna Bray of Santa Clara, $1000 and $1000 to Northern California Indian Association of San Jose. The remainder of the estate was left to two daughters, Frances L. and Bowen Beans of 2245 Piedmont Avenue, Berkeley. Stock in the San Jose Water Company was left to George Bray, a brother.

Miss Tanner formerly resided in Washington and is now staying at the Dallas Apartments, 1144 Larkin street. She told Detective Callahan that the contract Price gave her was worthless, as he had paid only $500 on the ranch and had allowed the payments to lapse.

Detective Callahan heard that Price was west Centerfield and he went there yesterday, accompanied by Miss Tanner. Deputy Sheriff Rose told him that Price had been going up and down the country in a buggy. When he was seen approaching Miss Tanner was told to step into the Southern Pacific station. She was to identify Price and if he proved the right man was to rush out and yell at him. She followed her instructions to the letter. Callahan and Rose jumping into an automobile, started west. The car operator for a mile before effecting his capture.

NEW DENIALS
THAT MARYE
MAY QUIT

If George T. Marye has resigned his post as ambassador from this country to Russia no one knows anything about it but himself, according to the denials which today poured in upon his reputed filling of such a document with the authorities at Washington. President Wilson, Joseph P. Tumulty and Mrs. Marye and the ambassador's secretary, Ray T. Baker, all denied, and so did the denials of the reported resignation.

In a wire dispatch received from Cornish, N. H., the summer home of the president, it is announced that the chief executive had said that if Marye had resigned he knew nothing of it. He refused to discuss the matter further. Baker took the trouble to send a wire message to Tumulty, and received the following reply: "Telegram received. No truth in report." In addition to all this, Secretary of State Lansing and other federal officials denied Marye's resignation.

MRS. MARYE TO RETURN.

The ambassador's wife is passing a few weeks in rest at her Hillsborough home and expects to depart next week for Paris, where she will remain in Petrograd. She said today:

"I am very indignant to think that such a rumor should have been published without any foundation whatever. The first intimation I had was when I was told of the publication today. My husband is not an impulsive man as all his friends know. If he had contemplated any such step as that he certainly would have told me of his intention, for we have been the closest of companions."

In regard to the report that Mrs. Marye had found Russian life uncongenial, she said that she had found the Russian capital a most charming city and the people extremely hospitable.

RUSSIA NOT STUPID.

"Some persons, who are not familiar with Russian life, think Russia is stupid and commonplace," she said, "but we found Petrograd one of the gayest places in which we have ever lived. In fact, social life there was almost too strenuous, and I remember that we had only eighteen dinners at home all the time we were there."

As to the rumor that any feeling was caused because I was not 'well received at court,' it is only necessary to say that since the war there has been no official court ceremony anywhere in Europe. I went to Petrograd last October, and am thoroughly satisfied with the manner in which social attentions were extended to me."

It was to gain relaxation from the more recent strain of the war conditions that Mrs. Marye returned to the United States at this time and to her beautiful place at Hillsborough.

RUMOR GROUNDEDLESS.

"We have a home in Washington and we found life fascinating there," Mrs. Marye said, "but we found Petrograd equally fascinating. I came here now simply seeking the rest of the subjects to be considered."

Many of the delegates will remain in the big cities to attend the 11th universal convention of Eastern Students next following.

The Asiatic Students' Alliance and International Humanistic Students' convention, will meet in San Francisco during the month and in Berkeley the fall of this year.

August 2 to 5, and the western department of Chinese Students' Christian Association, August 5-7.

IMPORTANT CONFERENCES.

Following the reunion there will be two international conferences on "War, Peace and International Policy" under the auspices of the American association for international conciliation. The first of these will be at the University of California during the week of August 30 and the second at Stanford in the week of September 6.

The Conferences will be similar to those held in Europe by Norman Angell. The object of the Cordis Fratres movement, in America, is to unite movements and organizations throughout the world to study student problems of every nature, and to promote among students closer international relations, mutual understanding and friendship.

Also, Berkeley and Palo Alto men active in arranging for the reunion Taraschuk, Dase, A. L. Cowell, Joseph Misrov, David P. Barrows, Arthur U. Popov, F. K. Kruger, Mol Lee, Woo, Chung Street, Leonard Outwater, B. M. Currin, of Berkeley; J. A. Hanna, M. T. Rodig of Stanford.

JOURNEYS IN PICTURE

In picture to some of the most interesting parts of the world.

South America, the land of culture and contrasts, is a land which everyone wants to visit, and unusually plans to visit at some time or other. India and its matchless temples and shrines, carved and decorated with a lavishness unknown to the occidental, its strange religious rites and its extraordinary people is a land of compelling interest to the tourist.

Little need be said of Paris for its art galleries, Latin quarter, Montmartre, boulevards, parks and care-free people are well known to everyone.

CLOSES SECOND WEEK.

With this week, Mr. Roberson will bring the second week of his engagement to a close. Unusually large crowds have been attending for the past week, testifying to the interest the public has taken in the unusual travel-festival which The Tribune is presenting.

For tonight's subject Mr. Roberson will present "Germany and the War," what is perhaps the most popular and compelling of all the travelogues in his repertoire. The subject has been given three times to capacity houses, and has been scheduled for the fourth time owing to the public's demand.

The motion pictures for this travlogue are the same as those offered before; the Kaiser with members of his royal family, and his general staff, 250,000 troops passing through the streets of Berlin.

"The Death Head Buzzards," formerly the crown prince's crack regiment on parade, Uhlan, artillery and infantry in review. "The goose-step" of marching infantry, submarines, dreadnaughts, battle cruisers and Zeppelins. The tour of Germany will include Berlin, Heddberg, Hamburg, Munich, Cologne, Leipzig, Hanover, Weissenbaden, Nurnberg and the wonderful natural scenery of Bavaria.

THE GRAND CANYON.

Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Mr. Roberson will present "The Grand Canyon of Arizona, a travlogue entirely different from anything else in his repertoire. The mighty chasm, one of the greatest of all nature's creations, will be shown in beautifully colored views.

Motion pictures will show tourists on the steep trails, life on the ranches nearby, pueblo life of the Indians and the ostrich farms.

Admission to any travlogue is 10 cents with the coupon from The Tribune for general admission to either balcony, or 25 cents with the coupon for a reserved seat on the first floor. Admission with the coupon is 50 cents.

CHICKEN COOP IS CACHE FOR LOOT

Former Clerk Confesses to $20,000 Theft From Postoffice.

SAN FRANCISCO. July 16.—Secreted in a chicken coop, $13,000 was recovered yesterday after a systematic search of the rear of the home of Clarence McDaniels, postoffice roofer, in Palo Alto.

The "coop" was found by Post Office Inspector James O'Conor all following a complaint made yesterday afternoon by McDaniels that he concealed a $10,000 robbery in the postoffice at Wallace, Idaho, nearly two years ago.

Inspector O'Conor had found a $1,000 in the basement of McDaniels' home in Palo Alto Wednesday night. Believing there was more money about the premises, O'Conor kept up his search and finally came upon the $11,000 cached in the coop.

McDaniels was an assistant clerk in the Palo Alto postoffice. He had been transferred here from Wallace, Idaho, in 1913. His wife was held under contract to Federal grand jury under $1,000 bonds, which he was unable to supply. He was committed to the San Francisco jail.

The arrest and confession of McDaniels represents a long and patient wait by the Federal authorities. They watched every move, knew how much salary he received and how much he spent.

Mrs. Luella McDaniels, wife of the condemned looter, was also taken into custody.

She was released yesterday after hearing before United States Commissioner Francis Krull. She convinced the court that she had been coerced into passing the stolen bills.

THIS TOWN "DRY," HARD WORK TO FIND BOTTLE.

ALBANY, Ore. July 16.—Indicating that Albany is really as well as legally "dry" is the circumstance that Miss Beulah Hinckley, who is to represent Albany at the "wedding" of water at the opening of the Celilo Falls, had difficulty in complying with the community's request that she bring the water of the Columbia river in a chambagne bottle.

When Miss Hinckley received the instructions she asked some of the directors of the Commercial club to secure the necessary bottle, and it was some time before one could be found. Finally, however, the necessary bottle was discovered, but the name bringing it in did not indicate where it was unearthed.

CHARGED WITH THEFT. MARTINEZ, July 16.—Andrew Williams and Charles Parsons arrested in Oakland at the request of local authorities, were brought here yesterday to answer to a charge of stealing copper wire from the plant of the Pinole Light & Power company during the recent fire which partially destroyed the town. The complaint was sworn to by H. B. Poinsette, superintendent of the plant.

MEET MRS. PENNYPACKER. The luncheon given today in the California Hotel in honor of Mrs. Percy Pennybacker, president of the Panama-Pacific Exposition, was attended by a representative gathering of Alameda County Woman's Auxiliary. As president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Pennybacker was the inspiration of a number of large functions.

LINER WITH CONTRABAND MADE FLOATING FORTRESS.

Unusual precautions were taken by steamship officials to protect the Baltic prior to her sailing. In addition to the usual guard, a section of private detectives was thrown around the entire pier and along the bulkheads and every piece of baggage was inspected.

ENTERTAINS FOR VISITORS. Mrs. John Deadrich was hostess several evenings ago at a 500 party given at her home in Ninth street in honor of a number of out-of-town friends and also in honor of the birthday of her niece, Mrs. John Deadrich, of Berkeley. ## MORE 'SPLENDID BRUTES, IS IDEAL OF UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE COURSES FOR MILLING COVES

"Learn to Knock Your Man Cold," Is Professor's Standard.

BERKELEY, July 16.—"We want to turn out here men who have their own chests, men that can take care of themselves. They'll all get into some row or other when they get out of college, and I want them to be able to land the punch that will settle it."

It was in these words that Professor Frank Kleibergen, who will have charge of the work in physical education at the University of California next semester, announced the fact that courses in boxing would not only form part of the curriculum in his department, but would occupy the major share of attention. There will be no more "spot covering" for calisthenic exercises in the gymnasium.

Everyone interested in the university will be required to take an efficiency test. Though the complete schedule for this work will not be known for some time, the tentative plan covers health, endurance, self-defense, swimming and general sportsmanship.

Those passing the efficiency test will be divided into four classes. The first class is the more strenuous and complete test will entitle the student to pass into the class for the athletic honor division. A less strenuous section will be organized, and those passing this will be admitted to the sports group. Those who fail to pass test will be given other facilities for athletics, records and no physical defects will be classed as average, while men of poor health will be classed as specials and specific attention will be given to their needs.

Professor Kleibergen plans to lay special emphasis on boxing, and has every one of his teaching fellows and Raymond Scott, his assistant, working out with the padded mitts during the summer. His theory is that men should be able to take care of themselves when the occasion arises.

In the efficiency test, the more useful things have been substituted for many routine exercises. The men who are able to run faster, vaults to save aid to a helpless person in a swimming tank, knowledge of wrestling, and training in first aid, are to be particularly important.

PLANS CAMPING TRIP FOR 60 BOYS

Alameda Recreation Commission Arranges Outing in Redwood Peak.

ALAMEDA, July 16.—Sixty Alamedans boys are to be taken to Redwood peak for a camping trip, the camp being under the jurisdiction of the recreation commission of this city. The boys will leave next Thursday for their outing, which is now being arranged by Mr. Fred Nichols, J. Parker of the recreation commission and Superintendent of Playgrounds E. M. Vail.

Bloomfield divides occupations into two kinds—engraving and engraving. The type of an engraving occupation is the work of the railroad engineer; the type of engraving work is the telephone operator's job. He dwelt upon the necessity of considering the character of the individual in recommending an occupation and said that the most successful workers were those that studied their jobs; the most successful employers those who studied the peculiar abilities of each of their workmen and assigned work accordingly.

Practical experience in different occupations is part of the work of Bloomfield's classes. A number of women in the courses have been putting in part time in department stores, others in laundries. The course will take a trip to the Valley Iron Works to move to familiarize themselves with the shipbuilding industry.

SORORITY GRANTS STANFORD PLEA

BERKELEY ASKS
ALBANY TO JOIN

BERKELEY, July 16.—A cordial invitation to join with Berkeley and be a part of the new State of California was extended to the town of Albany by the local Chamber of Commerce. This action was taken at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors last evening. It was pointed out that the community of interest of the two places had been well established. Only a few days ago the Berkeley first department made a run to save a home in Albany from burning, and this city, the chamber asserts, has been a good neighbor to Albany ever since.

The feeling that exists between the city of Berkeley and the town of Albany and the hope was expressed that this union in one state will be a great benefit to both cities.

Business interests was emphasized in the note directed to the town trustees of Albany and the city council of Berkeley.

A. J. Bradford and John Cook of the Equitable Building and Loan Association of Berkeley, addressed the board in favor of inviting the next State convention of the California Loan League to meet in Berkeley. By unanimous vote this invitation was accepted.

Following a meeting in the Massachusetts Room, the Shedd will assemble in the California building, where a feast will be served.

HOLD CLAN REUNION

ALAMEDA, July 16.—Members of the Shedd family of this city will be among those who will attend the reunion of the clan to be held at the Panama-Pacific exposition July 27. Daniel Shedd, one of the pioneers of the country, is head of the family, which now has been scattered to San Francisco.

Attorneys H. H. Sanborn and A. B. Roehl were authorized to sign the application for the reduction of these reduced rates.

B. J. Pittner, C. C. Juster, W. E. Woolsey, D. E. Bigelow and F. T. Robson were chosen as delegates to the good roads convention to be held in San Francisco September 1.

WILL FACE HEARING

ALAMEDA, July 16.—F. S. Terrell, Jr., who was involved in a scandal with Mrs. J. R. Molera, the former Mrs. Crofts is president and Paul Steinleff is conductor. The good will of the city was manifested, and citizens were urged to give the organization the support it deserves.

The action of the officers of the Chamber of Commerce in protesting against the action of the city council in so far as that it is to reach San Francisco by way of Dumbarton Point instead of going through Richmond, Berkeley and Oakland was ratified. It was mentioned that the original plan would have allowed at least two hours to be saved.

Last night he was a guest at a reception given by the San Leandro Community Club.

A week ago, while he was a vacation guest at a family in San Leandro, he was taken ill with ptomaine poisoning. He was brought to the East Bay Sanitarium in Oakland. Gastman, who was 28 years of age, had been a teacher in San Leandro, and settled in Humboldt County in 1879, and had lived in that district until nine years ago, when they moved to Berkeley.

Two physicians worked over from town to me to help me, and they told me that did not expect me to live, nor that I had best telegraph for my family. ## RICARD THEORY NEWLY ATTACKED

Rainstorms, Riots, Rheumatism Not Due to Sunspots, Says Scientist.

BERKELEY, July 16.—Do sun spots cause panics, rainstorms, Kansas cyclones, divorces and other maladies? This popular idea was rudely dispelled yesterday by Professor S. B. Nicholson in his class in astronomy at the U. C. summer session.

"The only known influence that sun spots exert on the earth," said Professor Nicholson, "is connected with electrical disturbances. If a graph were made of the maximum periods of sun spots and the maximum severity of electrical storms, there would be a very close correspondence."

"The real cause of these spots is unknown. They appear as dark blotches on the surface of the sun. Some years there are many of them; in other years the sun appears almost spotless. When present they always appear in the same place. One of the best proofs that the sun revolves is the fact that these spots disappear and reappear again at a regular interval of time. Their actual nature is still a mystery, but much speculation has been based on the popular belief."

The boys will take their supplies for the time of their vacation. Regular guard duty will be maintained and the work of the camp will be divided among the youths.

Summer camps have been arranged in other cities of the state and have proved most successful and enjoyable.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, July 16.—To help California farmers find out how to make their orchards and ranches more profitable and how to make the most of farm and community life is the object of the annual farmers' short course as announced by the University of California for the university farm at Davis from October 4 to November 12.

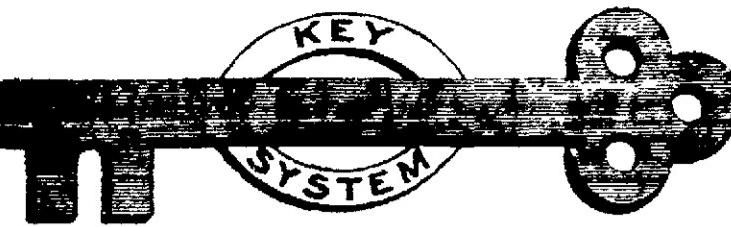

The University of California has set upon the novel plan of announcing exactly what will happen at every hour of the day throughout the year so that all farmers who go to Davis for practical work may attend exactly those lectures and demonstrations which fit their own particular needs.

Before leaving home, for example, the farmer will call on the professor on the afternoon of November 4 to practice under the direction of Professor G. H. True, the judging of dairy bulls; that on the afternoon of October 21, Dr. F. M. Hayes will show him how to vaccine his hogs; that on the afternoon of October 18, Professor A. V. Stabenau will discuss how neighbors may co-operate for fruit marketing; and that on the morning of October 14, Professor F. L. Adams will tell how to economize and eliminate waste on a poultry farm.

There are to be courses in general agriculture, dairy manufacture, poultry husbandry, deciduous fruits, citrus and tropical fruits, Viticulture and olive.

The full 779 acres of the university farm will be the classroom for these visitors, and the various methods of both dry farming and irrigation will be displayed. Among the laboratory apparatus are a well equipped commercial creamery, a stock pavilion, mechanical shop, foundry, forge, blacksmith shop, and a large greenhouse containing a dozen breeds of sheep and milk goats and angoras, half a dozen different breeds of hogs, and varieties of grapes planted in 30 acres of vineyard, 15 acres of almond, peach, apricot and apricot orchards, and a series of experiments with field and forage crops.

All the courses are for six weeks, save that dairy manufacturers, which will start from October 4 to November 12, last, for admission must be at least 18 years of age. Women are welcome as well as men.

UNITED ARTISANS ARE GUESTS ON URBAN TOUR

Visiting Delegates See Neighbor Cities,
Business Session Resumed

Delegates and visitors to the convention, convened by Mr. W. H. Watt, supreme leader of the Pacific Coast states of the United Artisans, which opened in the Pacific building, Sixteenth and Jefferson streets, yesterday, combined their pleasure today, enjoying themselves during the long summer session during the afternoon. The one topic of discussion this evening, will be brought to a close this evening, when the convention will be held.

Starting at 3 o'clock this morning, more than 500 visitors and delegates were placed in automobiles or street cars and taken for rides about Oakland, Berkeley, Piedmont, Alameda and other interesting places in the east bay section. Among the places visited were the Greek theater at the State University, the Piedmont Art Gallery, Oakland Municipal Auditorium and the beach at Alameda.

The business session opened at 10 o'clock this afternoon. The meeting is being held on the roof garden of the Pacific building. Frank M. Reed, who is president of the convention committee, opened the meeting with an address in which he explained the objects of the present gathering of Artisans who are from Washington, Oregon, Nevada, as well as from all parts of California.

PORRTLAND MAN SPEAKS. Eugene Kiesel, president of the club of the United Artisans at Portland, Ore., was a speaker at this afternoon's session. In the work of the order in the Pacific Northwest, he explained the plan for the future. Mrs. Josephine E. Gearhard of Oakland, secretary of the 1913 convention committee, read a report on the progress of the convention held in Fresno in May of this year. The business program was varied by the introduction of musical and vocal numbers by Irene Young of Berkeley, and Miss Orme Smith of Portland.

The delegates were entertained at a luncheon in the Pacific building at the noon hour. The business session closed with a general discussion "for the good of the order."

The official closing of the business part of the convention will take place this evening. Three women's drill teams, representing clubs in Portland and Salem, Ore., and Cleveland, will compete for a silver trophy, to be fought for each succeeding year.

Tomorrow will be Artisan's Day at the Exposition. Exercises will be held in the Oregon building, with Frank M. Reed presiding as chairman of the day. Music will be furnished by the women's band.

At 10 o'clock with the presentation of a commemorative bronze medal by an official of the Exposition. This will be

MULE INFICTS FATAL INJURIES ON DRIVER

MOESTO, July 16.—With his face crushed and his brain laid bare at the forehead by a kick from a mule at the Ralph Clegg ranch, near Hughson, Frank Dolan, a teamster, was brought to the hospital with little hope of saving his life. Dolan was harnessing the animal when it kicked him squarely in the face, the blow crushing the upper jaw and carrying the nose away, while the bone of the forehead was also laid open. Despite the terrible injury Dolan had been conscious at times. He has worked as a ranch hand in the vicinity of Modesto for the last twenty years.

HITS HEAD WHILE DIVING AND DROWNS

PLACERVILLE, July 16.—The coroner has returned from Fallen Leaf Lodge, near Lake Tahoe, where he was called to hold an inquest into the death of 16-year-old Fred E. Ward, who perished while swimming in Witches' pool. Ward's body was found in water about four feet deep. Features introduced at the inquest indicated Ward, believing the water to be deeper than four feet, dived in. His body was found in the bottom of the pond, rendering him unconscious. Deceased's parents reside at Oakland. He was employed at Fallen Leaf Lodge.

BOARD CLASSIFIES

NEW POSITIONS

DAUGHTERS OF ISABEL ELECT OFFICERS CEREMONIAL TONIGHT TO END SESSION

Baloting Is Done by Orderly Method

The S. P. N. S. I., the Portuguese beneficial order for women, founded under the supervision of the president of the order, has held a special meeting last night in order to elect new officers.

The civil service board has selected positions,

as the city council

had asked for the consent of the board to three emergency appointments.

The board classified all positions of revenue expert and of city veterinarian, and consented to the emergency appointments of C. Stuart MacMillan and of Dr. J. A. Hall to the places in the order named.

The question of classifying the newly created position of secretary to the commissioner of public health and safety, to which Dr. F. F. Jackson, the commissioner, has asked the emergency appointment of Ben J. Jones, was given careful consideration.

The position was formerly held by James W. Nelson under the title of chief clerk.

Nelson received $125 a month.

The city council has abolished the position of chief clerk in this department, decreasing it to that of the title of secretary at the same salary.

The civil service board has already classified in the past the position of office secretary at a graduated salary from $140 to $165 a month.

If the duties to be performed by Jones, as secretary to Jackson, are of this character, the salary attached by the council to the place would be too high.

But after a study of the conditions, and a conference with Dr. Jackson, the civil service commissioners were inclined to take a different view of the situation.

The department of public health and safety is the largest and most complex in the city. It includes control over the police department, fire department, electrical department, health department, building inspection, street lighting, and several other divisions.

The office, secretary,

commissioner Jackson holds, should everge some executive and supervisory functions, with a salary of not less than $165 a month.

An examination will be held in this classification to make and effort will be made to obtain a man of high calibre.

Secretary Jones' is planning to take the examination and is considered an excellent man for the place by Dr. Jackson. He has already entered into a study of the various departments under the control of this com-mision.

FRESNO, July 16.—Juan Rivera, a wandering leper, who has worried the authorities of many counties in the San

Joaquin Valley and Southern California, died this morning at his isolated home,

a small tent in the center of twenty acres

adjoining the Fresno County hospital, a girl who was the only attendant. Within an hour after death occurred, the body had been removed from the tent and buried by the county.

The tent was burned immediately.

Rivera arrived in Fresno June 17 from

Los Angeles, after a visit in Visalia where he claimed an unknown man had robbed him of $50 in the night. Rivera, weak from hunger, was found lying in the gutter of Fresno's Oriental district.

The authorities of Fresno County attended to have the leper deported but the request was denied.

Rivera was taken to the receiving hospital and later removed to their homes.

LIMA BEAN CROP BIDS FAIR TO BREAK RECORD;
1,500,000 SACKS IN SIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—The prospects of a record lima bean crop reaching the unprecedented 1,500,000 sacks, worth something like $6,000,000 to the growers of California, brings with it its own peculiar marketing problems. Heretofore, with the lima bean area restricted to Ventura and Los Angeles counties, the association of growers has been able, through a pooling of interests, to practically control the prices paid for the crop. But this year the area of the lima bean planting has been extended along the Coast as far south as the Mexican boundary and even below it. The crop will be larger, provided growing conditions remain unchanged, than any former yield—larger by two or three hundred thousand sacks. Only about 200 cheats were received but met with no great demand. There were again light supplies of beans which sold up to $1.25 for double layers and to $1.50 per sack. Beans were off $1.25 cents for single layers. Red Lima beans are now practically out of the market.

Raspberries receipts were one of the few receipts which held firm from $1 to $1.25 per lug box. Apricots ruled about the same as usual. Plums and prunes were steady. The records of strawberries were light with however, practical no increase in the prices. Only about 200 cheats were received but met with no great demand. There were again light supplies of figs which sold up to $1.25 for double layers and to $1.50 per sack. Cucumbers also dropped down to $1.00 per lug box.

Mixed tomatoes are becoming neglected owing to the receipt of other more expensive varieties, which sold from 25 cents to 40 cents per box.

Pears declined, the price ruling from $1.50 to $1.65 per sack with considerable quantity left over.

Chili peppers are accumulating with various discounts, 50 cents for lug boxes being about the top figure. Bell peppers moved fairly well at from 75 cents to $1 with an occasional $1.25 for a lug box.
